SURPRISE PARTY ON WAY TO POLLS

Herald Forecast Indicates Hearst and Jerome Elected.

BALANCE SHEET OF THE VOTE CAST

Of More Than 10,000 Votes Cast, Hearst Receives 4,777; McClellan, 3,582; Ivins, 2,333; Jerome, 3,634; Osborn, 1,136; Shearn, 530; Flammer, 105.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—This year's political campaign is practically closed.
The last great skirmishes are occurring to-night, and within a few hours the rival armies will be at rest, and there will be an armistice that will continue until the ballots are cast and the decision is rendered. As is usual, at the close of a campaign, all of the candidates seem outwardly confident of victory. Hearst and Jerome have been the unknown quantities that have upset all calculations.

The Democrats went into the struggle with a ground work estimated at 250,000 votes. Mayor McClellan was put forward for re-election, with every indication that he would be victorious.
It was on the eve of the Democratic City Convention that fusion failed with the opposition and gloom settled over the camping places of Independents and Republicans. Determined to name a straight party, the Republicans placed in nomination Charles E. Hughes, for mayor, Richard Young for controller, and James L. Wells for president of the Board of Aldermen. Hughes and Young declined.

While the Republican gloom was deepest, the newly organized Municipal ownership league, which had drifted with the breaking up of the fusion scheme, worked up a public frenzy and placed William R. Hearst in nomination for mayor at a mass-convention that was a revelation to the two established organizations. The Republicans finally threw in the towel by selecting William Mills Ivins, as a mayoralty candidate and Charles E. Teale, a Brooklyn merchant, for controller.

Jerome First in Field.
In the makeup of the county slate interest centered in the selection for district attorney. It was agreed that Mr.
Jerome was eligible for all of the organizations. He failed to secure the indorsement of any of them. He had nearly a month previously, however, had himself nominated by petition and so was the first man in the field for the office he now holds.

Following the conventions, the Democrats were speedily placed upon the defensive, and have remained in that position throughout the campaign. Neither the mayor nor his campaign manager have given out any estimate of his vote, but his close friends have predicted that he will have 75,000 plurality.

Hearst Enthusiasm.
What the vote of the Municipal Ownership candidates will be is the riddle of the campaign. They started with nothing but a sentiment, and how far that sentiment has been transfigured into votes is what has worried and informed the contest. Where the mass-meetings of a regular organization candidates have been cold and unresponsive, the Hearst meetings have been deliciously enthusiastic.

At William M. Ivins' candidacy his opponents have been inclined to scoff.
Mr. Ivins, however, asserts to-day that he will slip into the mayor's office by a substantial plurality, while his adversaries are cutting the ground from under each other.

On a par with the Hearst sentiment is the District Attorney Jerome. His name stands alone on the official ballot, and to be carried to victory he must poll more than one hundred and fifty thousand split tickets, in which the district attorney is running, is 303,633, the vote polled will, it is estimated, be close to 350,000. Since the official information has shown the district attorney to far outstrip his antagonists, but Tammany Hall is relying upon the inability or disinclination of the voter to split a ballot.

Hearst Leads Straw Vote.
To ascertain the drift of popular sentiment in the coming election, the Herald made a poll of more than ten thousand voters representing all classes of voters in all the five boroughs of the city. The results are given this morning to serve as a basis for forming a judgment of the outcome of the voting on Tuesday.

In these polls, Mayor McClellan had a plurality in the election districts chosen, in the financial and real estate organization, with the exception of the Brooklyn League, and in the Hippodrome. Mr. Ivins had a plurality of the teachers in the public schools and in the Brooklyn League. Mr. Hearst had a plurality in all the other groups of voters polled. In stating the final balance sheet of the vote cast for nominees for Mayor, the following result was obtained:
Leads Mayor By 600.
WILLIAM R. HEARST, 4,777; GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, 3,582; WILLIAM M. IVINS, 2,333.
All through the campaign, the political leaders have been basing their claims on the supposed drift of Republican voters to McClellan or of Democratic voters to Hearst. In order to get an idea of the extent and the relative proportion of this drift, the Herald in asking the preferences of the voters regarding nominees, also asked them to indicate the party ticket with which they are in the habit of voting. A summary of the replies received to this question, excluding the straight party ballots and the Independents, is as follows:
Democrats who will vote for Hearst, 1,444; Republicans who will vote for McClellan, 759. Democrats who will vote for McClellan, 759. Democrats who will vote for Ivins, 200.

CAMERA CATCHES VIRGINIA AND V. P. I. IN THREE FEATURE STRUGGLES.

THE DEMOCRATS WILL WIN FIGHT

Contest Purely Between the Two Strong and Ancient Enemies.

THE REPUBLICANS MAKE BIG CLAIMS

Democrats Invade the Ninth District and Expect to Win Trophies of the Fight in That Republican Stronghold—Forecast.

Though there are four party tickets in the field for next Tuesday's election, including the Socialists and labor parties, the fight will be between the two ancient enemies, the Democrats and the Republicans, and the honors promise mostly in favor of the white dominant party, the Democrats.

The State ticket will win with a good majority, and while the Republicans have been exceedingly active in Eastern Virginia, and are making big claims of accessions and that they will capture members of the Legislature from the Democratic majority, the Democrats have turned the tables on them in the Southwest.

The best speakers in the Democratic ranks have bombarded the only Republican district in the State and expect to win a number of legislative districts heretofore Republican.
Swanson's whirlwind canvass of the Ninth District last week aroused tremendous enthusiasm, and good results are expected.

The Republicans have been exceedingly active in the Northern Neck counties, and are making unusual claims in that section.

Following we give a forecast of the congressional districts by reliable correspondents, and it will be seen that the Democrats have little to fear if the voters turn out and cast their ballots.

THE FIRST DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 4.— The Democrats will carry this city by a good majority in the election next Tuesday. The Republicans have been unusually active in this campaign, but it is not believed that they have made any accessions to their ranks of consequence.
The fight for the State Senate between Judge F. W. Sims, of Louisa, Democrat, and Absalom Waller, of Spotsyylvania, Republican, is a spirited one.
The district is composed of the city of Fredericksburg and the counties of Spotsyylvania, Stafford and Louisa. Fredericksburg, Stafford and Louisa, Fredericksburg and Stafford will give a good Democratic vote. Spotsylvania and Stafford are both close. Judge Sims will be elected. Both candidates for the House of Delegates from the city of Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania county are working hard. They are G. R. Swift, of this city, Democrat; Thomas F. Morrison, of Spotsylvania, Republican. Morrison will probably carry Spotsylvania county, but Swift will get Fredericksburg by a majority in Fredericksburg to offset it, and will be elected. In Stafford and King George counties the race is a strenuous one for the House of Delegates. R.
C. L. Moncreux, of Stafford, Democrat, and F. W. Payne, of King George, Republican, are each making a personal canvass from house to house in both counties. It is believed that the vote will be close in Stafford, and that Moncreux will carry King George, thus ensuring his election. In Westmoreland and Northumberland counties, the candidates for the House are George Mason, Democrat, and D. L. Griffith, Republican, both of Westmoreland. It is believed that Mason will be elected by a safe majority. In Lancaster and Richmond counties John Curlett, Democrat, and H. E. Owens, Republican, both of Lancaster, are candidates for the House, and a negro is also running as an Independent. Curlett will be elected.
The present member of the State Senate from the Northern Neck is a hold-over Senator. In Caroline county D. B.
Powers, Jr., Democrat, will easily defeat.

"Professor Napoleon" Departs.

Large audiences greeted "Professor Napoleon" at matinee and night performances yesterday, and the play went off smoothly. It is believed that the Blues realized quite a neat sum from the entertainment.
In yesterday's criticism of the play the programme was followed in the statement that Miss "Beetle" Evans was a leading actress. It should have been Miss Mary Carrington Evans.

V. P. I. HELD FOR DOWNS AT CRITICAL POINT.

Brilliant Display of Election Returns Tuesday Night

The Times-Dispatch will make a most complete display Tuesday night of election returns from Richmond, the State at large, from New York city, from Philadelphia and from every city and State in the Union where an election is held.

This is done for the benefit of the friends and patrons of the Times-Dispatch and every arrangement has been completed for securing, at the earliest possible moment, full returns from every section of the State and nation. Intense interest is felt in the fights in New York City and in Philadelphia as well as in the contest of Republicans and Democrats in Virginia.

The exhibition will be given, as usual, in the Capitol Square, by a modern vitograph, which will also throw scores of moving pictures on the great canvass for the entertainment of the people.

The public is heartily invited.

RUNS FOR GOVERNOR IN 1909

Says He Will Not Allow Any-

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—Hon.
Harry St. George Tucker was here for a short time to-day, saw the President for half an hour, attended to matters at Georgetown University, where he was dean of the law faculty until he resigned a few weeks ago to accept the presidency of the Jamestown Exposition Company, left at 4 o'clock to go to Winchester to visit his mother. He will go to New York Monday and sail Tuesday for Europe, to be gone until the first of the year in the interest of the exposition. While Mr. Tucker will sail on election day, he saw to it that his vote will not be lost for he paired with a Republican voter of Lexington.

Mr. Tucker is enthusiastic concerning the prospects for a great exposition on the shores of Hampton Roads in connection with the three hundredth anniversary in 1907 of the founding of the English settlement at Jamestown.
"I believe the exposition is going to be a dazzling success," said Mr. Tucker.
"I have seen nothing nor heard anything since I accepted the presidency of the company which was depressing. I be-

MINE DISASTER IN FLAT TOP FIELD

Seven Men Dead and Others Expected to Succumb to Injuries.

SECOND EXPLOSION IN A YEAR

Fifteen Men Were Working in Vicinity of the Accident.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BLUEFIELD, W. VA., November 4.— The Flat Top field has suffered another disastrous explosion in one of its mines located at Vivian, and its result is frightful, seven miners having succumbed to their horrible injuries, and more are expected to die. There were about fifteen men in the mines, working in the vicinity of the explosion, and that more were not killed or injured is indeed a miracle.
There are several explanations as to how the disaster occurred, but it is said that each of them are but expressions of opinion, as nothing definite is known of the cause.

It is claimed by some that an accumulation of gas ignited from a miner's lamp, but the most reasonable version is that it was due to a shot blowing out. This even does not appear probable, for there is in most mines a certain hour of the day fixed for shooting down coal. However, the explosion was of a terrific force and caused a heavy fall of slate and debris.
The dead are John H. Carter, Goward McGhee, Lewis Bony, John Bradley, Robert Norman, Page Hundley, Horndivine.
The explosion was in a mine of the Tidewater Coal and Coke Company. This is the second explosion that has occurred in these mines in the last four months.
The first occurred on July 6th of this year, killing ten men.

LEE'S BODY SERVANT DIES IN NORTHLAND

Was at Appomattox With the General and Drifted North When Latter Died.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHBURY PARK, N. J., November 4.— William T. Evans, former body-servant and guard for Confederate General Robert E. Lee, lies dead in West Ashbury Park. Evans' age is believed to have been about eighty-one. He was a slave.
Evans was at Appomattox when Lee met Grant at the surrender. Evans witnessed also the hanging of John Brown.
Evans' freedom was purchased when he was two years old.
After General Lee's death Evans drifted North, and he refused to mingle with the Northern "colored trash," as he called them. For a time he was a waiter, but didn't like the business. He did odd jobs for little pay and with the memory of his Southern luxury and distinction to cheer his old age.

BUTCHERS' WORK IS INDESCRIBABLE

Every Jew, Man, Woman or Child Caught, Slaughtered.

MOB EXHAUSTED. SULK LIKE BEASTS

Though the Worst is Thought to Be Over in Moscow, It is Only Attributable to a Lack of Material
On Which to Prey.

According to the latest dispatches that have come out of Russia, Count Witte is making his force felt. His hand is on the helm, and disorders are beginning to cease.

Emperor Nicholas has signed the manifesto granting political autonomy to the Finns, and it has been dispatched to Helsinki, where a grave revolution was threatened, and battleships had already reached that port, with 10,000 troops, to quell the insurrection.

Count Witte has practically settled the railroad strike by giving in completely to the strikers, with whom he had a conference yesterday.

Dispatches are brief from the riot centers. An Odessa dispatch says it is believed that the worst is now over. In several towns the entire Jewish quarter has been devastated and the inhabitants killed or wounded.

Situation Well in Hand.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. PETERSBURG, November 4.— Count Witte is getting his hands on the helm and the Russian ship of state is beginning to right itself. Gradually the disorder that followed the promulgation of the Constitution, giving the people liberty, is being put down. The premier has met the immense difficulties confronting him and the pressure of the demands of the different classes of society with the energy and sincerity that are more and more giving him the support of the moderate and liberal who have been frightened by the carnival of disorder into which the country has been plunged and the inordinate demands of the proletariat under the leadership of the "reds" and Social Democrats.

Freedom of the press and general amnesty, except for crimes having the support of the moderate and liberal who refused to yield to the demand for the organization of a national guard, on the ground that it would be equivalent to arming the Social Democrats to fight and destroy the whole government between midnight and morning. Count Witte today solved the railroad strike at a conference with the strike leaders at which he did not hesitate to make a practical surrender of the government's demands. The bases of settlement include increases in wages, right to organization of meeting and re-employment of strikers.

One of the newspapers, after a careful investigation, gives the number of victims in St. Petersburg during the disorders as six killed and thirty-one wounded.

KILLED THE JEWS FOR THE JOY OF IT

Whole Fury of the Mobs Was Directed Unchecked Against the Jews.

(By Associated Press.)

ODESSA, November 4.—It is believed that the worst is over. Owing to the mobs being satiated with two days' carnivorous of murder and destruction by flame, the revolt against law and order is dying down, partially, perhaps, because of lack of material upon which to prey. Almost the entire Jewish quarters of Moldavia, Slobodka and Bugiolyva are devastated, and the inhabitants have either been killed or wounded or have sought refuge in other sections of the town.

The whole fury of the mobs was directed unchecked against the Jews. During the first demonstration over the Emperor's manifesto and the sudden acquisition of "freedom," tens of thousands of men who had hated the Jews through generations became drunk with the desire for Jewish blood, swarmed into the Jewish sections of the town and killed for the very joy of killing.

In some instances the military aided instead of preventing the work of vengeance and fury, which culminated yesterday in the quarters mentioned. Every Jew, man, woman or child, who was

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 4.—With Carpenter and the five other players protested by the Virginia Advisory Board in to-day's line-up the eleven from the Virginia Polytechnic Institute defeated Virginia on Lambeth Field this afternoon 11 to 0.

The contest was perhaps the most stubborn ever fought out on a Southern gridiron and was witnessed by an enthusiastic crowd, numbering over two thousand, nearly every Virginia city being well represented, excursion trains coming from three directions.

Despite the all-star aggregation presented, the visiting team could not turn a wheel without Carpenter, and to him alone, belongs the credit of the victory. The Virginia team exceeded the expectations of its fondest admirers and as long as Carpenter was not running with the ball, succeeded in making the contest nip and tuck.

Carpenter's Brilliant Work.

Whenever a third down was needed, he was called upon. Frequently he got in brilliant end runs of from ten to thirty yards. Three minutes before the close of the contest, however, he was ruled out of the game, having been caught in the act of slugging Barry, Virginia's right end, and had to leave the game for a loss on an attempted end run.
He was roundly hissed by the "rooters," as he went to his seat on the players' bench.

The game was delayed thirty minutes because of Carpenter's refusal to sign an affidavit to the effect that he had not received money for his services in certain contests in which he had participated.

It was his last game, and the players talked the matter over some while, and finally, Mr. Gibboney, of the Blacksburg board announced that Carpenter had refused to affix his signature to the paper. This fact was then announced to the crowd and at 8 o'clock the game was begun.

V. P. I. Wine Toss.

V. P. I. having won the toss and thirty minute halves having been agreed upon, Johnson started up the contest by throwing the leather to Treadwell. Several short gains were made by the visitors and then Virginia secured the leather on a fumble. Two first downs were made and then the "Varsity fumbled in mid-field. Blacksburg made three first downs, and then Carpenter got away for thirty yards around Virginia's left end. Steady line plunges advanced the ball to Virginia's three-yard line. Here the Virginia line holds like a stone wall, and the ball goes over. Johnson has to kick high in order to keep the ball from hitting the goal post, and as a consequence it goes but a short distance. Carpenter makes a fair catch for a try for goal, but a Virginia player tackles him, and the referee gives V. P. I. fifteen yards, bringing the ball back again to the three-yard line.

Two Virginia held the visitors, but on the third attempt Harlan skirted the end and placed the ball three inches over the line for a touchdown.

Carpenter kicks goal.

Score: V. P. I., 6; Virginia, 0.

This touchdown was made after fifteen minutes of play.

Nip and Tuck.

The remainder of the half was nip and tuck. Near the close, V. P. I. worked the ball up to Virginia's thirty yard line, where Carpenter tried for a goal from placement. The attempt was a failure.

The second half was even more hotly contested than the first. The Virginia players, in addition to keeping up their line work on the defensive, once got the ball on the Blacksburg contingent and carried the ball straight up the field to V. P. I.'s twelve yard line. Here, however, it was lost on downs. Soon after opening of second half, Carpenter attempts a punt from placement, but the another goal from the mark. Johnson kicks to V. P. I.'s fifty yard line. V. P.
I. is forced to punt. Randolph getting the ball.

Takes a Brace.

gives five yards around V. P. I.
